Albertus Magnus College

A Catholic College
in the Dominican Tradition

Annual Report 2011–2012
The Mission of Albertus Magnus College

STATEMENT OF MISSION

The mission of Albertus Magnus College is to provide men and women with an education that promotes the search for truth in all its dimensions and is practical in its application. Founded by the Dominican Sisters of Saint Mary of the Springs, Albertus Magnus College, faithful to its Catholic heritage and the Judeo-Christian tradition, remains dedicated to providing an opportunity for learning which responds to the academic needs and ethical challenges of its students and of society.

This mission of Albertus Magnus College derives from the intellectual tradition of the Dominican Order whose essential charism is the search for truth (Veritas). Reflective of the dedication and commitment to service of our founder and sponsor, we at Albertus assume responsibility for the fulfillment of our particular service as an academic community.

On the cover: President Julia M. McNamara and Chairman of the Board of Trustees
Dear Alumni and Friends of Albertus,

In this the 87th year in the life of Albertus Magnus College, we are grateful for your unwavering support and continuing generosity. I am pleased to report that during the 2011–2012 fiscal year, through careful and prudent management, we have continued to remain financially healthy and free of long-term debt.

These are challenging times for institutions of higher learning and for the families of many of our students. Cutbacks in state grants for financial aid can make it increasingly difficult for students to gather the resources they need to make a college education a reality. This is why your support is so important, and why we make every possible effort to provide students with a high-quality education that will serve them well in the coming years.

Here at Albertus, a Catholic College in the Dominican Tradition, we are ever mindful of our mission—to provide an education that seeks the truth in all its dimensions and is practical in its application. In addition, we embrace the goal of the Dominican Order—to contemplate and to give to others the fruits of that contemplation. All that we do here is rooted in these enduring ideals. I hope that you will take a few minutes to read more about our centuries-old Dominican Tradition, and what it means to this College in the 21st century, in the pages of From the Hill, which surround this Annual Report.

It is ever an honor and a privilege for me to serve the College in this, the 30th year of my presidency. Over the years, our distinguished faculty and our dedicated staffs have accomplished much as have sought to ensure that Albertus responds effectively to the signs of the times and to the particular requirements of education in the information technology age. Our focus is on our students and the best ways for us to make sure that they are able to fulfill their dreams of completing their college education. This past spring we began work on a collaborative strategic plan, seeking the valuable comments of faculty, staff, students, alumni and community leaders on what works here or what can be improved. We who serve the College are excited about this process and the part that we all can play in continuing to render Albertus the very best it can be.

I thank you for your support and care for the mission and purposes of Albertus Magnus College.

Faithfully yours,

Dr. Julia M. McNamara
President

“It is ever an honor and a privilege for me to serve the College…”

Friends and Parents

The College’s mission and Dominican Tradition resonate with many individuals who are not graduates of the institution. They have established meaningful connections with Albertus and are an important part of our College Community. Their support is truly appreciated.

Corporations and Foundations

Donations from corporations and foundations come to the College in many forms: some are matching gifts or are given through personal philanthropy funds; others are grants that the College received; and some come from area small businesses in support of our mission or as memorial gifts, honoring the wishes of alumni or friends.
