

African American Hair: Art, Identity and Resistance

Feb 22, 2023 - Behan Community Room from 5: 30 to 7: 30 PM
-Dinner Will Be Served-

Hair Styling as Art, Self-expression and Identity in pre-colonial Africa and African American Communities in North America
- Nicola Singh, Ph.D.

The Current Repression of African American Hairstyles in Schools and the Workplace - Nickey kollie

The Afro and Dreadlocks as Forms of Resistance in the African American Community and Larger African Diaspora
Patricia Birungi, Ph. D.

The Importance of Barbershops in African American Communities - Joe Glenn

The Cost of Not Going Natural - Relaxers, Cancer, and Other Health Issues - _Nkenge Hook

